Family Camp is for both families and singles. The weekend has the perfect blend of activity and relaxation. There is something planned for everyone: friendly competitions, separate chapel for the children, swimming, canoeing, kayaking, floor hockey and so much more. Limited cabin rental is available (rental is based on first come first serve). There are places to park trailers. There are limited places to connect to electricity but the charge for this is equivalent to renting a cabin. All services are closed to people not registered for camp – this includes Sunday morning service.
